

National Council for Higher Education
Ensuring Quality for Excellence

UGANDA HIGHER EDUCATION REVIEW JOURNAL

PLAGIARISM POLICY

January 2026

Table of Contents

1	Authority and Legal Basis .....	3
2	Purpose.....	3
3	Scope of Application.....	3
4	Definition of Plagiarism.....	4
5	Forms of Plagiarism.....	4
6	Responsibilities .....	4
6.1	The Journal (UHERJ) .....	4
6.2	Authors.....	4
6.3	Editors and Reviewers .....	5
7	Prevention and Detection.....	5
8	Reporting of Plagiarism .....	5
9	Investigation Procedure .....	5
10	Editorial Actions and Sanctions.....	6
11	Appeals .....	6
12	Records and Reporting.....	6
13	Implementation Guidelines .....	6
14	Author Declaration on Originality .....	7
15	Policy Review .....	7
16	Commencement .....	7

1 Authority and Legal Basis

This Plagiarism Policy is issued under the authority of the Uganda Higher Education Review Journal (UHERJ), a publication of the National Council for Higher Education (NCHE). The policy is aligned with applicable national laws and regulations, including but not limited to:

- The Universities and Other Tertiary Institutions Act, Cap 262
- The Data Protection and Privacy Act, 2019
- The Copyright and Neighbouring Rights Act Cap 222
- International best practices in scholarly publishing and research ethics

This policy provides a framework for ensuring academic integrity in all manuscripts submitted to or published by the Journal.

2 Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to:

- Promote academic integrity, originality, and ethical scholarship
- Prevent, detect, and address plagiarism in higher education institutions and NCHE-related work
- Provide a clear, fair, and transparent framework for handling plagiarism cases

3 Scope of Application

This policy applies to:

- Authors submitting manuscripts to the Uganda Higher Education Review Journal
- Editors, reviewers, and editorial board members
- Research collaborators and contributors associated with published works

It covers all manuscripts, articles, reviews, policy analyses, and other scholarly works submitted to or published by the Journal.

4 Definition of Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the act of presenting another person's work, ideas, data, or expressions as one's own without appropriate acknowledgment. Plagiarism may occur intentionally or unintentionally.

5 Forms of Plagiarism

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to:

- Direct plagiarism: copying text verbatim without quotation or citation
- Paraphrasing plagiarism: rewording another person's work without proper attribution
- Mosaic plagiarism: blending copied phrases with original text without citation
- Self-plagiarism: reuse of one's previously submitted or published work without disclosure or permission
- Collusion: unauthorized collaboration resulting in non-original work
- Contract cheating: submission of work produced by a third party
- Inappropriate use of artificial intelligence tools without disclosure or acknowledgment

6 Responsibilities

6.1 The Journal (UHERJ)

- Establish and enforce standards of academic integrity and originality
- Subject all submissions to plagiarism screening
- Investigate alleged cases of plagiarism fairly and confidentially
- Take appropriate editorial action in accordance with this policy

6.2 Authors

- Ensure that all submitted work is original
- Properly cite and acknowledge all sources
- Disclose prior publication, reuse, or use of artificial intelligence tools

6.3 Editors and Reviewers

- Uphold ethical standards in editorial and peer review processes
- Report suspected plagiarism to the Editor-in-Chief
- Maintain confidentiality throughout the review process

7 Prevention and Detection

- All manuscripts shall be screened using plagiarism detection software approved by the Journal
- Similarity reports shall be interpreted using editorial judgment and disciplinary context
- References, quotations, methodology sections, and commonly used phrases may be excluded from similarity calculations where appropriate
- Authors may be required to revise manuscripts that exceed acceptable similarity thresholds

8 Reporting of Plagiarism

- Suspected cases of plagiarism shall be reported to the designated authority within the institution or NCHE
- Reports shall be handled confidentially and professionally
- Anonymous reports may be considered where credible evidence exists

9 Investigation Procedure

1. Preliminary assessment of the allegation
2. Formal investigation by a duly constituted committee
3. Written notification to the accused party
4. Opportunity for response and representation
5. Determination based on evidence and applicable standards

10 Editorial Actions and Sanctions

The Journal adheres to the principles and best practices of the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE) in handling plagiarism and publication misconduct.

Editorial actions shall be proportionate to the severity and nature of the offence and may include:
Editorial actions shall be proportionate to the severity and nature of the offence and may include:

- Request for revision or clarification
- Rejection of the manuscript
- Retraction of a published article
- Publication of a correction or notice of misconduct
- Temporary or permanent ban on future submissions

Where appropriate, serious cases may be reported to the author's institution or relevant authorities.

11 Appeals

An individual subject to sanctions may appeal the decision in accordance with established NCHE or institutional procedures within a prescribed timeframe.

12 Records and Reporting

- The Journal shall maintain confidential records of plagiarism cases and editorial decisions
- Aggregate data may be used for quality improvement and reporting to NCHE

13 Implementation Guidelines

The Journal shall issue internal editorial guidelines to operationalize this policy, including:

- Acceptable similarity thresholds for different manuscript types
- Procedures for handling suspected plagiarism in line with COPE flowcharts
- Communication templates for authors, reviewers, and institutions

14 Author Declaration on Originality

All submitting authors shall be required to sign an Author Declaration confirming that:

- The manuscript is original and has not been plagiarized
- All sources have been appropriately cited
- Any use of artificial intelligence tools has been disclosed
- The manuscript is not under consideration elsewhere, unless disclosed

False declarations shall constitute grounds for rejection, retraction, or further editorial action.

15 Policy Review

This policy shall be reviewed periodically to address emerging issues, technological developments, and best practices in academic integrity.

16 Commencement

This policy shall come into force on the date approved by the National Council for Higher Education.